RAIL SHOPMEN TO QUIT WORK
SATURDAY A. M.

Preparations Begun Following Official Call Late Wednesday.

EXECUTIVES CONFER

Consider Ultimatum Laid Down On Wage Reduction Orders.

Chicago, June 29.—National officers of the federated shopcrafts, maintenance of way brotherhood, the signal men, clerks and stationary engineers and firemen's organizations were cited by the U. S. railroad labor board today to appear before the board tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock on charges of conspiring to interfere with the operation of the railroads in violation of the transportation act.

The action taken by the labor board is the same as was taken in the threatened railway strike of last September. In this instance, however, only the union heads are cited, whereas last fall railway chiefs also were involved.

Citation of the union chiefs marks the first official attempt by any government agency toward aversion of the strike of the shopcrafts unions which has been set for Saturday, at 10 a. m.

This action was taken by the board under section 313 of the transportation act which provides that if the labor board at any time has reason to believe that a cessation of traffic on the railroads is threatened, can take jurisdiction.

It was learned by the International News Service this afternoon that the action of the labor board today followed a series of conferences between W. B. Hooper, chairman of the labor board and union officials and railway executives.

Chicago, June 29.—Railway shop men throughout the country today began preparation for a strike on Saturday in response to an official sent out last night from headquarters of the American Federation of Labor here.

The call fixes the hour for the strike at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

While strike plans of the unions were going forward, executives of the leading railroads, assembled in Chicago to consider the ultimatum laid down by the shopmen that wage reduction orders of the U. S. railway Labor Board be ignored, old working rules restored and the practice of farming out repair work from the shops be abandoned. The executives were to convene at 2 o'clock. The single hope of avoiding the strike so far as surface indications are concerned, lies in the possibility that the railway executives might seek a joint conference of union leaders, rail heads and members of the labor board.

No announcement of any such plan has been made but it was regarded today as a possibility.

There were evidences today that the three sides most directly concerned with the threatened strike are each torn to a greater or less degree with internal dissension.

It is no secret that the labor board facing the strike that will afford the greatest test of its power is divided. The public and railroad groups are standing together on the issue of wage reductions while the labor members of the board are in open dissension against them.

It is understood that the rail executives are not all of one mind as to the "farming out" system which forms one of the causes of the strike. Several roads have persisted in the "farming out" scheme while numerous others have abandoned it. Some executives are prepared to take others to task for forcing the strike issue by their stand in favor of the contract method of handling shop work.

In the union ranks greater solidarity is apparent but there is some skepticism in evidence as to the possibility of the success of a strike that involves only shopmen and maintenance of way employees with train service men remaining on their jobs.

Besides the railroad shopmen involved in the strike call, employees of the pullman shops also have been called out. The strike call which was signed by J. W. Cline, president of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, one of the six international unions who joined in the ultimatum to the rail roads, reads:

"In compliance with the strike vote, all shop craft employees below the rank of general foreman, are hereby granted sanction to suspend work at 10 a. m. July 1 on all railroads and pullman shops in the United States. Notify all outside points. Wire number responding and number remaining at work."

Chicago, June 29.—The forty Americans and the quarter of a million dollars worth of American property belonging to the Cortez Oil Company, seized near Tampico by General Gorozabe, a Mexican bandit, have been released, according to official advices reaching the state department today.

The rebel chieftain, however, left the American camp and proceeded with his men to the camp of the Lacorona Oil Company near Tecoco, where he seized the property and included among the 85 men captured were six Americans.

The state department advices came from Consul Shaw at Tampico. Shaw's first telegram dated yesterday said that the bandit general had left the camp at 10 a. m. Monday morning, threatening to return. His second message, dated last night, said Gorozabe had returned yesterday and seized the Tecoco camp in the same vicinity and had demanded 9,000 pesos (about $4,500 ransom money.) In the case of the Cortez property, he had demanded 15,000 pesos.

The property of the Cortez company was not damaged, so far as is known and little was in Consul Shaw's message to indicate the Americans had been injured or mistreated in any way.

Consul Shaw also did not state whether the 15,000 pesos ransom demanded for the Americans had been paid but the opinion prevailed here that it had not.

Consul Shaw is in close touch with George Sumnerlin, the American charge at Mexico City who has made vigorous representations to the Mexican foreign office concerning the episode.

In reply Foreign Minister Pant has assured Sumnerlin, today's advices said that every effort would be made by both military and civil authorities in Mexico to bring Gorozabe and his bandits to justice.

Two boat loads of Mexican federal troops have left Vera Cruz for the Tampico district to take up the pursuit and chastisement of the rebel chieftain, who apparently is running wild with a small bunch of men throughout the oil region.

Chicago, June 29.—The strike of the Hocking Valley railroad company to put into effect, not later than July 1, a joint through freight rate consisting of the regular rate on the Nelsonville base, plus a transfer charge not to exceed 8 cents per ton on shipments from points on the Hocking Sunday Creek traction company's line, which transferred at Nelsonville on to the Hocking Valley railroad destined to points on the latter line.

The Supreme Court's injunction is temporary, pending its decision of the Hocking Valley railroad's appeal from the commission's ruling. In view of the summer recess the Supreme Court is not expected to decide the case before next fall.

The court instructed the Hocking Valley railroad company to file bond for $5,000, for the purpose of reimbursing shippers in event that the commission's ruling is upheld. In the meantime, the Hocking Valley is expected to continue charging the old rates, which range from $8.45 to $25.50 per car.

STEAMER DAMAGED; PASSENGERS SAFE

Newport, R. I., June 29.—The Fall River steamer Providence, bound from New York to Fall River, struck a ledge early today off Fort Wetherell, during a dense fog and is, believed badly damaged. The steamer's passengers were brought here by the steamer General and the Jamestown ferryboat.

The vessel struck at 3 a. m. and the passengers were taken off this morning. A large hole was stove in the forward part of the steamer. The steamer General, learning of the perilous plight of the Providence sped to her assistance despite the dense fog which had rescued work dangerous. The fog has not yet lifted. The waters near the spot where the Providence struck are infested with rocks and shoals. Fort Wetherell is near the entrance to Narragansett bay. The passengers took a special train for Fall River and thence to Boston. None suffered injuries in the mishap.

STRUCK BY GOLF BALL IN TOLEDO, MAN MAY DIE

Toledo, Ohio, June 29.—Frank Z. Breski, 55 years old, suffered injuries that may prove to be fatal when he was struck by a golf ball while working in Ottawa Park yesterday.

Breski, who is employed as a laborer in the Park Department, was gathering debris in the fairway on the first hole when a tee shot, driven with terrific force, struck him on the head.

Breski was picked up by a mounted patrolman and rushed in a police emergency car to his home. His skull is said to be fractured.

ESCAPES DEATH MIRACULOUSLY WHEN THROWN AMONG HIGH TENSION WIRES FIFTY FEET ABOVE THE STREET

Cleveland, O., June 29.—Frank Cosley, today tells that he owes life and limb to a miracle.

Last night he was walking over the Superior Avenue viaduct at Merwin Avenue, N. W., when the top section of the iron stairs collapsed. Cosley, entangled in a ton or more of twisted iron, shot downwards, towards the bridge level, sixty feet below. His descent was stayed however, when ten feet down he bounded into a net formed by ten cables of the Illuminating Company, carrying 2,300 volts each.

His grab for a cross arm missed and he toppled out of the net to four wires ten feet lower, these being the main feed wires of the Cleveland railway company and each carrying 600 volts. Around these wires he spun like a trained acrobat but finally got a firm hold on one near the cross arm. The insulation was perfect and his hold remained firm, while some who had watched what they believed a certain dash to death telephoned for police and firemen.

He reached the cross arm, but did not dare to pull his body over, fearing instant electrocution from the tangled web of wires, dangling all around. The "trouble men" of the railway company were sent for, and within a few minutes all power had been shut off on the main cables, plunging the union station and other buildings into darkness.

With no other illumination than that of flash lights furnished by the flying squadron from police headquarters, Otis Trissi, fireman, scrambled up the pole, and Cosley was lowered to the ground forty feet below.

An examination disclosed that beyond a few scratches he had suffered no injury.

Chicago Society Leader Victim of Graft.

Mrs. Narcissa Niblack Thorne, wife of James Ward Thorne, Chicago millionaire, testified she was the victim of graft at the hands of Chicago labor leaders when she was forced to pay cash to avert a strike of union men who refused to hang lamps made by the non-union Women's Exchange, sponsored by Mrs. Thorne as one of her many philanthropies.

Believe McCumber
Will Be Defeated
in North Dakota

Washington, June 29.—Private advices reaching Washington today from North Dakota, indicated the probable defeat in the primaries of the veteran Senator Porter J. McCumber, author of the present tariff and bonus bills, who for 24 years has represented his state in the upper house.

The slow coming returns while showing McCumber has a small lead over Lynn J. Frazier, his non-partisan league opponent, were admittedly disappointing to Senator McCumber and his friends, and those familiar with the North Dakota situation expressed the opinion that McCumber is licked.

With about one tenth of the precincts in the state heard from at noon (Washington time), McCumber's lead was about five thousand votes.

The significance of the returns, however, lie in the fact that all of the precincts so far reported were from the cities considered McCumber territory and little or nothing has yet been heard from the rural district where Frazier was expected to poll an overwhelming vote.

American Held Prisoner By Mexicans
Tells Thrilling Story After Escape

Mexico City, June 29.—A. Bruce Bielaski, former chief of the bureau of investigation of the American department of justice who escaped from bandits near Cuernavaca, while being held for ransom, today made a detailed report to the American embassy upon his adventure. Mr. Bielaski arrived last night from Tetecala.

The former American official revealed that his life was really in danger and that he fled after overhearing the bandits making plans to kill him.

According to published accounts of Mr. Bielaski's adventure it rivaled an exploit of fiction. His escape was made in the dead of night after his guards had fallen asleep. He crawled on his hands and knees through the pitch darkness and the cave, fearing every moment that a sound would give him away or that he would bump against a sleeper. His shoes and clothing had been taken away from him and he was wearing

CARMICHAEL THOMPSON

Accuses Attorney General of Being Federal Power Behind Candidate

LETTER IS WRITTEN

Mellon Receives Note From Akron Publisher Containing Charges

Washington, June 29.—The warm political campaign in President Harding's own state of Ohio was further enlivened by "high-ups" in Washington when they ordered the nomination of Carmichael Thompson, as Republican candidate for governor and have diverted efforts of federal office holders in the state to that end.

The charges were contained in a letter written to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon by Rep. Charles L. Knight, Republican, prominent Akron publisher and himself a candidate for the nomination.

Rep. Knight accused Attorney General Daugherty with being the federal power behind Thompson and in a statement accompanying the letter he said:

"The eminent attorney general cannot keep his nose out of Ohio politics and, of course, he knows only one way to play the game."

In his letter to Secretary Mellon, Rep. Knight recited that Collectors of internal revenue who came under Mellon's department have been ordered to work for the nomination of Thompson and that most of them were cautioned always to keep in mind that "Congressman Knight must be defeated."

He named Carl F. Routzahn, collector at Cleveland, and Frank E. Schmiedel, chief deputy at Akron, as issuing the instructions upon orders from "higher ups" in Washington.

"I have good reason to believe," wrote Knight, "that substantially the same orders have gone to every deputy collector in Ohio."

"I do not believe it was ever intended that the treasury department should use the time of its employees and money of the people, to defeat certain candidates and elect others, and I do not believe you will tolerate a policy which is wholly indefensible from any angle."

Rep. Knight said he did not believe Secretary Mellon had anything to do with the issuance of the orders. He blamed Daugherty.

Attorney General Daugherty later issued a statement, denying that he was taking any part in the preliminary fight in Ohio or elsewhere and declaring that charges to this effect, were "false."

BATTLE OF WITS IS FOUGHT AT HAGUE

The Hague, June 29.—"Principle pounding" was the feature of today's session of the international conference sub committee of property in which M. Litvinoff, head of the Russian delegation, again fought a battle of wits with the allied statesmen. Everybody took pains to emphasize that discussion of principles of government, have no place in this conference but they crept in anyhow.

CONSIDER NEW TRIAL

Charlestown, W. Va., June 29.—A motion for a new trial for the Rev. James E. Wilburn, found guilty of second degree murder in connection with the killing of Deputy Sheriff John Gore, during the miners' rebellion last summer was taken under advisement today by Judge Woods. A ruling on the motion was promised for August 7.

FIRE SWEEPS SECTION

Calexico, Cal., June 29.—An entire block of business buildings in the main business section of Calexico, Mex., across the border from here is in ruins today after a fire that gave firemen a stiff fight last night. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

FIVE PINNED BENEATH
AUTO NEAR CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, June 29.—Five persons were pinned beneath the auto in which they were riding and two of them seriously injured Tuesday night when the car overturned after colliding with another machine at Indian Hill and Drake roads. Casualties were from the party in Dr. Roscoe Garrison's car. Mrs. Nellie Garrison, 27, receiving a fractured right arm and leg and a sprained back, while Miss Gertrude Haveman, 23, received a sprained right ankle and back. Dr. Garrison, Robert Mathis and Margaret Brown escaped with minor injuries.

ASK INDICTMENTS AGAINST MORE THAN

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 29.—Indictment of 26 persons for election frauds and irregularities in connection with the recent May primaries in Allegheny county was expected today after the grand jury had finished its investigation. Judges Swearingen, Tione and Bell ordered the district attorney to prepare for submission to the grand jury bills for indictment. Indictments were asked against H. J. Neely, W. H. Storer and James P. Murphy in connection with charges of irregularities in the count of the returning board. It is set forth that through these alleged incidents, Louis Manley, was for a time counted out of the Democratic congressional nomination in the 35th district.

Communication With South-western Part of Ireland Cut Off—Women Join Republican Army and Assist Irregulars and Communists.

London, June 29.—Violent street fighting, accompanied by heavy casualties was in progress in Dublin late this afternoon, according to a dispatch to the Evening Standard.

A Central News dispatch said that all civilians had been cleared from a district two miles square around Four Courts building. Free Staters were still shelling the Four Courts building.

or else they had nearby positions which dominated the Four Courts area.

The casualties have been light in view of the severity of the fighting. The dead are estimated at 15 and the wounded at 40.

Leaders declare it is impossible to say when the civil war will end. While the free state troops have been successful in routing the irregulars from some of their positions, they have been unable to achieve a decisive victory. Indications are that hostilities may last days. The fighting spread beyond the city this morning when reinforcements of Free State troops that were moving towards the city were attacked at Clonsilla, five miles west of Dublin. The attackers were beaten off. The extent of the casualties is not known.

Fears of general fighting led to rumors that civilian sympathizers of the Republicans were organizing an uprising in support of Roderick "Rory" O'Connor, commandant of the irregulars.

The Republicans have occupied a dozen buildings in the rear of the positions held yesterday, adding to the difficulty of the free staters.

Despite the confusion and the dangers of flying bullets, business men are attempting to conduct their affairs as usual.

STATE UTILITIES'

Decree Concerns Through Freight Rate Scheduled July 1.

Columbus, June 29.—The State Supreme Court today enjoined the State Utilities Commission from enforcing its decree issued May 5, ordering the Hocking Valley railroad company to put into effect, not later than July 1, a joint through freight rate consisting of the regular rate on the Nelsonville base, plus a transfer charge not to exceed 8 cents per ton on shipments from points on the Hocking Sunday Creek traction company's line, which transferred at Nelsonville on to the Hocking Valley railroad destined to points on the latter line.

LETTERS ONLY CLUE TO DOUBLE MURDER

Stroudsburg, Pa., June 29.—Letters written in the girlhood of Mrs. Fred Demund, who, with her husband, was found dead, shot in the back, in their home at North Water Gap, have been unearthed by detectives who visited the Demund home at Catskill, N. Y., today.

One letter states that "something terrible" had occurred in her life. "My God, may he suffer as he has made me suffer," it concludes. Only love for her husband is expressed in the letters.

The authorities are mystified as to the person or persons who committed the deed and what the motive was. The peculiar behavior of a brother of the slain man, Millard, is being investigated.

Demund and his wife were married recently. On Tuesday night they were shot to death while lying in bed. The bodies were dragged to the floor and the bed set on fire. The flames destroyed the mattress and burned the carpet on the floor nearby, partially charring the body of the slain bride.

HOTEL PROJECT IS AGITATED THROUGH LETTERS TO C. OF C.

What has become of Xenia's modern hotel and theater building project?

Xenians are asking themselves this following the announcement that Dayton promoters were attempting to inspire enthusiasm for such a structure with the prospect of raising 50 per cent of the stock issue to finance building among local investors.

The Dayton men obtained options running until September 1 on the Mrs. C. L. Darlington Sr. property at Detroit and Third Streets, on the Andrew Hanning property adjoining that building on Detroit street and on the T. J. Savage property next to the Hanning home.

Whether these options will be taken up is not known. That the Dayton promoters are not the only hotel financiers who want to build a hotel here, however, is proven by the fact that several concerns that finance such buildings have attempted to obtain local sentiment by writing the Chamber of Commerce.

The Community Hotel Financing and Building Company of Minneapolis, writes as follows: "Would your Chamber of Commerce be interested in assisting in the promotion of a new hotel, say, about one hundred and twenty rooms, each room with private bath, steel and concrete structure? Would the citizens of Xenia back up a campaign to assist, in raising $150,000 through public stock subscriptions, in a company to promote such a hotel? We are prepared to promote, construct and secure an operator for a modern hotel for your city, if the citizens will back a campaign to raise 50 per cent of the amount necessary or will consider financing a smaller building. It is about time that Xenia secured a new hotel that would be a credit to the city as well as a great improvement."

Another letter from the National Service Associates, New York City, says in part, "Frequently a new hotel is the most needed public utility in a community. The need is not met, and the city suffers, because there is no small group of investors which can spare the funds for what would be a profitable investment. It can be made a community enterprise. Such a movement should be directed by experts acting upon knowledge secured by a careful study of the field. There is a temptation to be 'penny wise and pound foolish' but the greatest economy results from experienced leadership in such important matters." Another similar communication has been received from The Hockensburg System, Incorporated, Harrisburg, Pa., and deals with Xenia's need for a new hotel.

KILLED IN FIGHT WITH POLICEMAN IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, O., June 29.—John Harrington, of Pittsburgh, died this morning in city hospital from bullet wounds received in a running battle with Patrolman Gus Wild at two o'clock this morning.

Wild with Detective Appleton was pursuing Harrington, believing him to be a man who had shot Ray Evans a. his home a few minutes before. When they called on him to halt he turned and fired. Wild felled him with two shots. Harrington was taken to a city hospital, but died a few hours later.

Why suffer when you can get relief from rheumatic pains, backache, swollen, sore and stiff joints, sleep disturbing bladder weakness and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. Sayre & Hemphill, 8 S. APPEAL FOR STATE POLICE TO GUARD RAIL PROPERTIES

Will Attempt to Forestall
Any Acts of Violence
It is Said

New York, June 29.—If railway employees throughout the nation carry out their reported plans to go on strike next Saturday an appeal will be made by eastern roads for special state police to forestall any acts of violence or any attempts to prevent continued operation of the roads. L. F. Loree, president of the D. and H. line, and chairman of the eastern conference of the American Association of Railway executives said today.

That the eastern roads whose employees constitute about one half of the 400,000 men who would be affected by the strike will adopt a stand pat attitude was indicated by Loree. Executives from virtually all eastern roads left either last night or today for Chicago where they will attend a conference of member roads in the American Association of Railway Executives.

Columbus, June 29.—Final steps toward the purchase of a 1,704 acre site near Grafton, Lorain County, for a new institution for feeble minded are to be taken by State Director of Welfare Macayal following approval by Governor Davis and his cabinet of the proposal. No delay is expected in closing the deal. This year's crops, estimated by Director Macayal to be worth $16,000 and which must be harvested soon are included in the $122,493 purchase price.

THREE MEN BEATEN

Punxsutawney, Pa., June 28.—Three men were badly beaten today at Valier four miles from here when they refused to comply with the demands of striking coal miners that they quit work in the mines of the Perry Coal company at that place. More than 500 miners from Punxsutawney and vicinity went to Valier. When the non union miners started to work they were pursued not to do so. Most of them joined the union on the spot.

MONTHS OF SUFFERING

How a Baltimore Girl Recovered Her Health

Baltimore, Maryland.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your book at home one day and after reading it began at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very good results and some of my girl friends are taking it now. You may use this letter to help other girls, as the letters in your book helped me." ROSE WADNER, 3013 Roseland Place, Baltimore, Md.

That is the thought so often expressed in letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. These women know what they have suffered, they describe their symptoms and state how they were finally made well. Just plain statements, but they want other women to be helped.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine made from medicinal roots and herbs, and without drugs, to relieve the sickness women so often have, which is indicated by backache, weak feelings, nervousness, and no ambition to get anything done or to go anywhere. It has helped many women. Why not try it?

Indomitable Durant

It is said in automotive circles that W. C. Durant accomplishes what he plans; to him difficulties are so many spurs to greater effort, making one get on the faster.

He is the man who made the Buick. He conceived and organized General Motors, including Cadillac, Chevrolet, Oakland and Oldsmobile. Certainly a considerable monument to one man's tireless energy.

But now, when many men would be content to enjoy a well-earned vacation, he is up to the armpits in the business of launching the crowning effort of his career.

It's "just a real good car," Durant says. "If it's good enough for him to christen with his own name, it's good enough for us," said the trade, and in 141 working days after the announcement they contracted for $31,000,000 worth of Durant cars.

THERE MUST BE SHIP SUBSIDY, OR OLD GLORY ABANDONS THE SEAS.

It is a pretty much forgone conclusion that the first important bill to be passed by Congress is the Tariff bill, and the next one the Soldiers' Bonus bill. Then the ship subsidy bill comes next. Regarding the latter, it is not too much to say that the subject had been given but little general attention by the public until within the last few weeks, when so vividly urged by President Harding in his letter to Representative Mondell. In fact there has been only a faint public comprehension that this country has a "Merchant Marine" fleet, and above all that the operation of this fleet was costing the government a loss of FIFTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS PER YEAR. Think of that, a million dollars per week. No wonder the President is anxious to have the people understand this.

A few days after the President's letter to Representative Mondell, A. D. Lasker, Chairman of the Shipping Board put the future of the American merchant marine squarely up to Congress.

In an open letter to all members of the House and Senate he declared that one of two things must happen—there must be a ship subsidy bill or the American commercial flag will retire from the high seas.

"The Shipping Board admits that it cannot operate its fleet as economically as private owners operate their vessels; the history of prior boards shows that they were unable to put operation of the Government fleet upon a proper business basis. The Shipping Board believes that the fleet under its charge never can be operated profitably or successfully under Government control.

"What shall we do with this war inheritance? Shall it be sold to private ownership for operation under the American flag; shall it be sold abroad some day to rise and plague us; or shall it be junked and charged off to war cost as powder and shell were charged off?"

The Chairman dismisses as impractical the suggestion that the ships be junked, as it would be an admission that Americans are incapable of operating them and would prove to be a serious blow to United States prestige. To sell them abroad, he points out, would be to put into the hands of competitors an effective weapon to destroy America's world trade.

By substituting the Administration's ship subsidy bill for the present form of operation the ships could be turned to profitable private ownership and the taxpayers relieved of a heavy burden.

"It is believed that the Administration subsidiary bill will be a money-making proposition for the Treasury. The ships are wearing out and America is impotent on the seas from a merchant Marine point of view.

"The measure proposed will end the drain upon the Treasury, will make up for much of the original cost, encourage private initiative and stimulate Americans to take their place in ocean carrying competition."

Individual private ownership, and that ownership given a SUBSIDY by the government enough to make the loss equal the gain, enough to make the business pay until on its feet, is now the hope of the administration.

President Harding in his letter to Representative Mondell says: "We have two outstanding problems which must be met, in the solution of which Congress must share the responsibility and regarding which there can be but one opinion when our people are acquainted with the facts. One is the handling of our shipping assets to the highest advantage without continued loss to the public Treasury. The other is the establishment of an efficient merchant marine, when opportunity is beckoning as never before, as an agency of commerce and an avenue to influence in peace and an indispensable element of defense if we are again involved in war. No argument is needed on the last essential other than the reminder that we build our vast tonnage as a war necessity and no one thought to complain of the excessive cost or the ultimate accounting."

"The subject is not to be prejudiced by the old and worn out cry against subsidy. If there is insistent use of a term so long employed to awaken a public hostility let it be known that we are subsidizing today by paying losses aggregating fifty millions a year for inadequate service of no permanence, while the pending measure contemplates no such outlay and is paid only for specified service which is the base of a merchant marine fit to compete with the maritime Powers of the world.

"Moreover, the term subsidy, implying bestowal upon special interests, can no longer be applied to a public service where the aid is extended only until a normal earning is developed, and must be returned after the earnings reach a 10 per cent return on actual investment, certified under Government audits. All this the pending measure provides.

"Frankly, I feel deeply the responsibility. I think it a national calamity to fail in the waiting opportunity. I cannot but believe the American people will be in accord. If they appraise the immediate problem in the continuation of losing millions through our present operations, and sense the situation as it relates to the American future, I believe Congressmen will return from the contact with the people at home, confident that the Merchant Marine Bill is no less appealing than relief to agriculture in distress or to railroads in their necessity."

WORK THROUGH

There is a saving power in the world—a something that follows us, that picks us up when we stumble, and that lifts our heads when they get too much in the habit of looking downward.

This power is work! And its application is to work through. Many worry through, fret through, complain through. But the real reapers the leaders, creators, dominators, doers—those who sow and reap and accumulate and leave something of worth and substance behind—work through.

It's not the easiest way. Sometimes you have to go through stone walls—walls that look absolutely impossible and impassable. But there is a way to get through them. It's to work through them.

Work is a healer. Work is a bolster. Work is the sum and substance of what it pays to make life out of. When you are in doubt as to the best next move, get right to some useful job—and by the time you have worked through it, the chances are that your vision will have cleared. Work through!

While the year is young, while newer things are budding, while so many are doing their best to make the world a little better and to even up what has been torn down through years of war and sorrow, you do your part—take the cue—work through.

Owing to illness Mr. Adams is unable to write his Daily Talks this week. He is taking this opportunity to reprint, from his readers, six Talks for which he has received many inquiries since their first publication, in the hope that all of his readers as well as those who have written him, will enjoy seeing them again—The Editor.

HUGE BARN TOTALLY DESTROYED BY LIGHTNING

Zanesville, June 29.—During a frightful electrical storm which passed over this city and county Tuesday evening, about 7 o'clock, lightning struck the Cattle barn at Muskingum County fair grounds and the huge structure, covering nearly a quarter of an acre, with its mows full of hay, was totally destroyed. It will be rebuilt at once in time for the county fair next month. The heavy downpour of rain is all that saved many other barns on the grounds from being destroyed.

ASKS APPROPRIATION TO COVER BIG DEFICIENCY

Washington, June 28.—President Harding today asked congress to appropriate $5,000,000 to cover deficiencies in the navy department during the current fiscal year. The navy department, the president said, needs this sum to pay debts contracted by suspension of construction work.

In another message the president asked for a $51,000 appropriation to settle claims awarded by the United States court of claims.

SOHN'S DRUG STORE

OVER $75,000 WORTH OF PROPERTY BOUGHT

Columbus, June 29.—More than $75,000 worth of personal property was bought by bidders attending the first day of the Allen Motor receivership sale here. Bids were strong, and selling prices on the 500 lots of personal property included in the sale brought comparatively high prices, according to Samuel T. Pressman, Philadelphia, in charge of the sale, which was attended by about 300 bidders.

Company real estate, valued at $303,830 by tax appraisers, attracted only one bid of $150,000, which was declared insufficient by the receivers. Service rights were purchased by the Puritan Machine Company, Detroit, for $66,000.

Sale of the effects of the Columbus branch of the defunct company, ends today. Property of the Bucyrus branch will be disposed of Thursday.

TEACHER PROGRESSIVES GAIN OVERWHELMING VICTORY

Cedar Point, O., June 29.—The "progressives" seem to have completely routed the "conservatives" or "stand patters" who for many years have controlled the Ohio State Teachers Association, now holding its 75th annual session here.

After gaining an overwhelming victory in the adoption of the new constitution giving the rank and file more voice in the affairs of the organization, the revisionists—otherwise the "progressives"—gained further vantage points this forenoon in placing of supporters on committees and in other ways.

The so-called "conservatives" are declared by leaders of the "progressives" to be friends of the various book concerns, against which, it is said, much feeling has arisen in numerous localities throughout the state, and the routing of the "stand patters" is regarded as a slap to the book companies.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE.

"My nose is red" the good man said, "although I drink no liquor; and when I rise to preach to guys, they look at me and snicker. My beak is pink, but not from drink; it comes from scarlet fever; I sip no drops distilled from hops, for drink is a deceiver. No beer or wine wets lips of mine, no gin my breath will tarnish. I'd rather die than lap up rye or other coffin varnish. And so I feel a helpful spiel from one who does no drinking might lead the boys from liquid joys, and set them all a-thinking. But when I rise to urge, advise, instill a lesson slowly, my crimson beak brings forth a shriek of merriment unholy. And none will hark when I embark in truthful explanations; men cry, jocosely, 'Go, bleach your nose, and cease your wild libations.' " How fearful 'tis, how fierce, gee whiz, this outward show of evil! How often wheat is good to eat, that we think spoiled by weevil! We should not judge, with cries of "Fudge!" the man who would uplift us, who's truly good, who bravely would from sinful courses shift us. Although his beard is wild and weird, although his pants are bagging, he yet may spring some goodly thing to keep our souls from sagging.

ROTARY SWAMPS KIWANIS 13 TO 4 IN GAME REPLETE WITH SURPRISES WEDNESDAY

Kicking the old dope bucket into all was also touched freely as he entered the breach, but Will McDonnell managed to retire the side without trouble in the final time at bat.

Ed. Davidson was first up for the Kiwanis Club, and was walked, Messenger and Poague each fanned, but Kuhn grounded to W. LeSourd at third, who threw wild to first, the ball slipping through Kelly's hands, and being lost in the weeds. Taking advantage of the search, Davidson and Kuhn both chased around the paths and scored, and because the ground rules had been agreed upon the runs were allowed. Gibney struck out for the third out.

F. Leashey, first up for the Rotarians, was safe when Belden dropped his grounder, and took second on a passed ball. LeSourd and McClellan each struck out and Chambliss walked and stole, but Kelly fanned for the third out. Dyer, first up in the Kiwanis second fanned, while F. Leashey threw out Belden and Adair fanned for the third out. The Rotarians were retired in order also in the second Poague threw out Ogan, and Murphy fanned but ran on the third strike, being tossed out by Gibney, Kohl struck out.

Hayward whiffed to start the third, while Chambliss threw out Davidson and Messenger struck out. The Rotarians recovered half of the two-run lead in that inning. Fisher opened by whiffing, and F. Leashey also fanned and was thrown out on the third strike. LeSourd walked and stole second and third, scoring when Messenger dropped Belden's assist on McClellan's grounder. McClellan was trapped, Davidson to Gibney, in an attempt to steal home.

In the Kiwanis fourth, Poague fouled out to McClellan, while LeSourd threw out Kuhn and Gibney whiffed in the Rotary half, Chambliss opened by walking and stole second. Kelly breezed three wide ones, but Ogan's fly to Dyer sacrificed Chambliss to third, from where he scored when Kuhn threw wild to third to nail him off the bag, Murphy got the first hit of the game at this juncture, and stole second. Kohl was hit by a pitched ball, but Murphy was dead, Gibney to Davidson, in an attempt to steal third.

Dyer opened the fifth by fanning, but Belden was safe when F. Leashey dropped his infield fly. Belden stole second, and scored when F. Leashey threw wild to first to catch Adair after fielding his grounder, Adair running all the way home on the error. Hayward fanned for the second out and Davidson obligingly whiffed for the third. In the Rotary half Fisher opened by singling to right, F. Leashey popped an infield fly, which Belden muffed, but the latter managed to get Fisher with a peg to Poague, Leashey being safe at first. LeSourd fanned, but Leashey stole second and scored on a passed ball. McClellan singled to left and took second on a passed ball, but was out, Kuhn to Gibney, trying to stretch it to the plate, after Chambliss had grounded and was left on first.

Messenger got the first hit for the Kiwanis Club in the sixth when he singled to left, but he was caught asleep off first, Chambliss to Kelly. Poague and Kuhn fanned. In the Rotary sixth, Kelly opened and was safe on Belden's wild heave, dashing to third on the error. Ogan was safe when Gibney dropped his high fly in front of the box and stole second, both Kelly and Ogan scoring when Murphy got his second hit over second base. Kohl struck out, but Murphy took second on a passed ball, and third on a wild pitch scoring when Fisher singled to left. Fisher scored when F. Leashey tripped to right and the latter was plated on LeSourd's double to left. McClellan was tossed out by Davidson, but Williams scored muffed Chambliss's grounder and LeSourd scored. Chambliss stole second and third but was deserted there when Kelly, up the second time in the inning, fanned.

Gibney was given a base on balls to open the seventh, and took second on a passed ball. Dyer popped out to LeSourd, while Chambliss threw out Belden and Adair fanned for the third out. Ogan was tossed out by Belden in the Rotary seventh, but Gibney, who was in the box, walked. Murphy, who was given second on a balk, Gibney also walked Kohl, and then gave way to Randall. Murphy scored from third when M. Leashey threw wild to catch him at that bag, and Kohl stole second and scored on a passed ball. Fisher whiffed, but F. Leashey was hit by a pitched ball, and R. LeSourd, who ran for him, stole second and scored on W. LeSourd's single over second. W. LeSourd also stole, and scored on McClellan's hit to left, but Chambliss was tossed out by Randall for the third out.

McKay, was thrown out by W. LeSourd in the eighth, but Hayward got the Kiwanis Club's second hit, with a single to left. He stole second, but was trapped between second and third and tagged out, McClellan to Ogan to LeSourd. Messenger was tossed out by Chambliss. McDonnell retired the Rotarians in one, two, three order in their half of the eighth. Kelly was out by Messenger unassisted, while McDonnell threw out Ogan and Sayre fanned. Williamson was safe when Kelly dropped the assist on his grounder to open the ninth, but was nipped off at second on a fielder's choice, McDonnell being safe on the play, McDonnell stole second and attempted to steal third when he was tossed out. McClellan to LeSourd for the second out, and M. Leashey fanned, finishing the game.

Both teams were supported by good guardians at the initial station. Messenger and Kelly starting in their roles of first basemen. Although he had no outfield chances, Murphy got two hits and a walk in four trips and Fisher also hit hard, getting two singles in four attempts. Poague at second, played well for the Kiwanis club with two chances, but the Kiwanis club found the pitching of Chambliss too formidable. The box score:

READ OUT OF UNION

Washington, June 29.—The state of Illinois was "read out of the union" by Senator Myers, Democrat of Montana, today from the floor of the senate, for failure of its authorities to punish perpetrators of the Herrin mine massacre.

FLAPPER IN NEED OF RELIGION IS PASTOR'S OPINION

Chicago, June 29.—What ails the much discussed flapper has been discovered by a world-wide authority on flappers, flapperism and flapperdom. The authority is no other than Dr. Corliss Phargraves, foreign supt. of Sunday Schools for the Methodist Episcopal church who is in Chicago today to make a report to the conference of bishops and ministers of that church in session here.

Dr. Hargraves has studied the question of youthful tendencies and morality in every country in the world and his solemn verdict is: "The flapper needs religion."

"Without an undergirding of religion," he continued, "all the more frivolous tendencies of the American flapper will run into degeneration, if not worse. It is the religious tendency of today that holds the flapper movement from going to all sorts of excesses."

"I want to add to that statement. I think that there is a good deal of hysteria on that subject that has no adequate foundation for the moral standards of our youth in America can most favorably be compared with standards of youth anywhere."

"The impression I get of American youth is that their morals and ideals are fundamentally sound. "While it is easy to go to extremes unconsciously, yet in this new freedom of expression I find a basis of sincerity and naturalness which when properly directed tends towards the finest of character."

"I hold no brief for the frivolous flapper, but I am thoroughly optimistic on the subject of American youth. There are none finer in the world."

INDEFINITELY SUSPENDED
New York, June 29.—Captain Fletcher of the Philadelphia national league was indefinitely suspended today by President Heydler because of his fracas with Umpires McCormick and Sentenell.

To can RASPBERRIES the easy Lorain way

Grade the berries, rinse, stem, and pack in jars to 1/2 inch from top. Fill jar with boiling syrup made of 1 part sugar to 4 parts water. Put scalded rubber in position and adjust lid loosely. Put jars in oven, set Lorain regulator at 250 degrees. Forget the canning for one hour. Then remove jars and seal immediately.

CANNING time is here. Does it begin for you a period of sizzling hot days spent over boiling kettles on a hot stove,—days of exhausting work and worry?

Not if you have a Lorain-equipped gas range! The Lorain Oven Heat Regulator offers you an easier, better way to can fruits and vegetables. You can stay out of the kitchen while Lorain watches the canning.

Read the recipe and you'll see how simple and delightful Lorain Oven Canning is. Remember, thousands of women have used the Lorain method successfully for several seasons.

When canned in their individual jars, things keep their fresh-from-the-garden firmness, color and taste.

FINED ON CHARGE OF HAVING LIQUOR

James Roberts, Wilmington pike, was fined $300 and costs when he pled guilty to a charge of possessing liquor before Judge E. D. Smith in Police Court Wednesday afternoon.

Roberts was arrested after a raid conducted on his place by Lieutenant of Police Mangan, and Patrolman Jones, Sims and Spencer, Wednesday afternoon. The officers presented their search warrant to Mrs. Roberts, the only member of the family at home, and confiscated five gallons of what police say was cherry wine and cherry wine and corn whiskey mixed, and which is said to test a high percentage of alcohol. The liquor was hidden about the house and ground.

The liquor was poured into a sink at police headquarters after it had served its purpose as evidence. Roberts was given a time allowance in which to pay his fine.

HEAT FATAL TO THREE

CALIFORNIANS IN DESERT

Brawley, Cal., June 29.—Death from "heat prostration" was the verdict reached by a coroner's jury at an inquest over bodies of three men who died in a desert a few miles southeast of Niland, Cal., last Saturday.

The men were: J. J. Everhart, and Henry C. Brown, of Los Angeles, and David Wilcox, an aged mining prospector.

Wilcox's body was found 10 miles from Niland, beside a wagon drawn by two burros, which were standing patiently in the intense heat.

Everhart's body was found in an automobile six miles from Niland and a short distance away from Brown.

It was estimated the temperature where the deaths occurred was from 132 to 135 degrees.

UNIFICATION OF TELEPHONE SERVICE IN ANOTHER YEAR

Cleveland, June 29.—Unification of Ohio Bell and Ohio State Telephone service here will be completed August 1, 1923, it has been announced. Preliminary to the unification of telephone service here, an application will be made for an increase in rates. Company officials estimate the cost of the merger at $1,500,000 and this subscribers will be expected to pay in the way of greater rentals.

WARNS AGAINST USE OF FIREWORKS NOW

Thursday was the first day allowed merchants to sell fireworks, and as a result premature celebrations were in evidence in different parts of the city.

Although the police order on the sale of pyrotechnics was lifted Thursday, the fireworks are not supposed to be used until Tuesday, the Fourth of July, and premature use will bring prosecution by the police, according to Chief of Police Graham. Police have been ordered to pick up youngsters using the fireworks before Tuesday.

Police are also under instructions to bring in youthful offenders using "nigger shooters". It is the claim of Chief Graham that these boyhood weapons are dangerous when used in the city, resulting in the order that has gone forth against them.

MORE PETROLEUM ON HAND IN U. S. THAN IN SPRING

Washington, June 29.—Stocks of domestic and Mexican petroleum in the United States on May 31 totalled 245,030,000 barrels, approximately 10,000,000 barrels more than were on hand April 30, the geological survey announced today.

Imports in May of Mexican mineral crude oil were 13,949,718 barrels, as compared with 11,659,375 barrels in April. Mineral crude oil imports from other countries for the month amounted to 68,052 barrels.

BEAUTY CHATS

ARTIFICIALLY WAVED HAIR

An extraordinary number of my readers want wavy hair and few of them have the opportunity for any sort of permanent hair waving process. It is so much quicker and easier they are always harmful. A hot iron some of the patent curlers on the market.

These methods may be quick but they are always harmful. A hot iron dries the hair even when it does not scorch or burn it directly off. Metal curlers break the hair, and in many cases are more harmful than a scorching iron. The least harmful of all curling methods is the most old fashioned—soft, kid curlers, or bits of muslin rag, around which the hair is wound. This old fashioned method has an old fashioned disadvantage, it takes time to produce a curl though this disadvantage is more than compensated for by the fact that the curl will be soft and natural looking.

But even this method can be used too much. Continuously waved hair will not grow, short hairs with split dry ends and a general untidy appearance will inevitably result. To be healthy hair must get plenty of rest, it cannot rest if it is constantly being pulled about and tortured into waves.

Besides all this, wavy hair is not universally becoming. Some faces are infinitely better when framed with a soft mass of perfectly straight hair. But the owners of these faces rarely agree. Of course there are times when a little wave is almost desirable. Sometimes when the hair is recently washed and is still limp, when the hair is too oily or too dry to dress properly, a little waving will help. I only protest against its continuous use.

Constant Reader—A girl of 14 wears her hair hanging over her shoulders in any simple fashion that is becoming to her style.

Fritz—To cause the hair to grow below the hair line, you should brush it in that direction and massage the part where you want this hair, using a good tonic several times each week with the massage.

N. X. R.—If you take a drink of water when the stomach is inclined to cause that rumbling it will often stop it; however, since this comes from nervousness the cure will only be effected by improving the health. Tomorrow—Face Bleaches.

BUTCHER REJOICES OVER WIFE'S RECOVERY

"My wife suffered for five years and practically lived on toast and hot water. Doctors said she would have to be operated for gall stones. A lady advised her to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and after taking 4 bottles over two years ago, she has been entirely well ever since." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at Sayre & Hemphill's and druggists everywhere.

Styles BY LENORE

Here's something new in bathing suits. It is made of wool jersey, in black or navy blue, and is a one-piece model with a detachable skirt fastened by three buttons in the back and front. A more elaborate version of the same idea showed the foundation with an all-over embroidered pattern in white.

And then, of course, there is the usual array of silk suits, taffeta and satin. A frivolous looking affair had a snug-fitting basque bodice and a very brief but very full skirt, trimmed with rows and rows of frilling in self-material. Another good-looking taffeta model was of dark blue and white gingham pattern, trimmed with bands of solid blue. Silk gingham in the darker colors ought to win a lot of favor, as it looks summery and is at least as durable as any of the taffetas.

CHAUTAUQUA WILL BE HELD IN DODDS' ADDITION IN JULY

That the Chautauqua will this year be held in some section of the Dodds' Addition, was the belief of the committee Thursday after looking over tentative sites in that section.

Two possible locations for the big tent have been suggested and property owners on these sites have volunteered the use of them for the purpose of the Chautauqua. The committee is denying the truth of rumors that the Chautauqua would be held at the ball park on Cincinnati Avenue, as that site was never considered, it is said.

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Chautauqua, the city was divided into ten districts to facilitate the ticket sale campaign to be conducted, and a captain appointed for the workers in each district. The districts and captains are as follows:

No. 1.—Union and Detroit streets, west and north, Mrs. M. R. Snodgrass.
No. 2.—Union and Detroit streets, west, and south, Miss Emma Ebricht.
No. 3.—Church and Detroit street, south to Main and west to railroad, Mrs. Walter Dean.

No. 4.—Main and Detroit streets, south to Second, west to railroad, Miss Clara Marshall.

No. 5.—Second and Detroit streets, south to Third, west to railroad, Miss Faye Cavanaugh. Orient Hill, Mrs. Howard Norris.

No. 6.—West of Penna. R. R., Miss Bertha Trebein.

No. 7.—Spring Hill, west side of Detroit street, Herbert Davis.

No. 8.—Spring Hill, east side of Detroit street, Home Ave., W. O. Cuthis.

No. 9.—Second and Detroit street, east and south, D. J. Hollenback.
No. 10.—Second and Detroit streets east and north, Mrs. William McGarvey.

Each captain has appointed a number of solicitors for each district and people wanting information are asked to call the captains. For the convenience of people living in the country, the following guarantors have been asked to obtain tickets and programs for those living in their localities: J. W. Ray, W. J. Bootes, O. Fawcett, Horace Ankeney, Harvey Elam, L. E. Oldham, Perry Doggett and Mrs. Aletha Foust.

Tickets will also be on sale at the stores of L. S. Barnes and Co., Rorine's Book Store, D. D. Jones' Drug Store and the Greene County Farm Bureau Office.

AMERICAN TELLS THRILLING STORY

The bandits did not manacle him and gave him plenty to eat.

Bielaski said his automobile was just rounding a curve of the road near Cachuamils in a wild and desolate stretch of mountain country on Sunday when seven armed men signalled the car to stop. One of the Mexicans looked at the license number and then called out:

"This is the one."
The bandits ordered all the occupants of the car, Mr. and Mrs. Bielaski and Mr. and Mrs. Barcena and the chauffeur, to get out of the car.

"We shall hold you gentlemen for $10,000 ransom," said the leader.

Barcena, who speaks Spanish fluently, replied in Spanish:

"We are poor and have not got any money."

"But you came to Mexico City with a very wealthy American," replied the bandit leader.

The desperado then directed the chauffeur and the women to return to Cuernavaca with the car. They said that whoever brought the money must approach on horseback, carrying a lantern and a white flag.

The bandits kept their captives hidden near the road all day long. Once they saw an automobile approaching.

"Shout one time and you are dead men," declared the chieftain.

They remained hidden until the car passed and then went into a big cave in a gulch called La Barranca Grande, where they remained until a decision was reached to send Barcena for ransom money.

"Come back by foot," said the leader, "If you say anything to the military people this man (Bielaski) will be killed."

Barcena got the 10,000 pesos and returned to the designated spot but there was no one there to meet him. He hailed a passing automobile and returned to Cuernavaca.

Make Your Own BUG KILLER P. D. Q.

You can easily make at home a full quart of the strongest bug-killer for 35c, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas and ants. This recipe will not burn, rot or stain clothing, and is entirely different from any other formula we know of, as this will kill the eggs.

Procure of your druggist a 25c package of (Perry Davis' Quietus) P. D. Q., then you will have the chemical made expressly to rid hotels, hospitals and dwellings of pesky bedbugs and other insects. Which Is Most Important To You What Goes into a Can of Paint or What Comes Out of It?

A long time ago, Lowe Brothers found out that six different ingredients had to be used in making High Standard Paint, if their customers were to get the satisfaction and lastingness out of every can that they had a right to expect.

They found out, also, that a different mixing and grinding process had to be employed.

You're not particularly interested in the manufacturing details, but you do want satisfaction and lastingness in paint.

That is what Lowe Brothers put into every can of High Standard. It is what you always get out of every can. Come in and ask for free literature.

Bielaski said that the bandits got so frightened over the approach of detachments of cavalry that they could not sleep and all became very nervous.

The authorities at Cuernavaca have a photograph of one of the bandits. It was found in a small nearby town. Both Bielaski and Barcena have furnished complete descriptions of the men, even to scars upon their faces.

Bielaski was suffering from exposure and hunger when he reached here. He was in his bare feet when he began his flight from the mountain cave and a random route was taken through dense forests, over deep streams and through a wilderness of chaparral and cactus.

AUTO DAMAGED ON DAYTON PIKE

Miss Bertha Trebein, and her cousin, Miss Margaret Ruythian, of Newport, Ky., were cut slightly by flying glass, when the Ford Sedan driven by Miss Trebein struck a State Highway Department truck, opposite the Marcus Shoup farm, on the Dayton pike near the edge of the city at 12:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Miss Trebein and Miss Ruythian were driving toward Dayton on their way to the home of Albert Ankeney, Beaver Creek Township, and the truck was coming toward Xenia when the accident occurred. Miss Trebein turned her head when she was attracted by the sound of an article she was carrying in the tonneau of the

READER TAKES NEWER FORM OF IRON--FEELS YEARS YOUNGER

"Six weeks ago I saw a special offer in the paper telling how thousands of people grow old in looks and energy long before they are really old in years, because, as examinations by physicians have shown an enormous number of people do not have enough iron in their blood. I have been taking Nuxated Iron for two weeks; the results are simply astounding. The roses have come back in my lips and cheeks and I can conscientiously say that I feel ten years younger."

The above is a typical hypothetical case showing the results that have been achieved by a great many people since we started this "satisfaction or money back" offer on Nuxated Iron. car, falling to the floor, and realized the proximity of the truck only when it was too late to avoid the crash.

Although she had sufficient presence of mind to turn the wheel of her machine and cut off the motor, it was impossible to avoid the heavy truck. The sedan was badly damaged, the radiator and windshield being smashed and the top damaged.

GIRL IS TURNED OVER TO PARENTS BY PROBATE COURT

Nellie P. Moore, 16 year old high school girl, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Moore, Fairfield Pike, after a several days stay in the county jail.

"A change seems to have come over her. She appears to be happy and glad that she is home, and I hope it will not be necessary to send her to Delaware," said Juvenile Judge J. Carl Marshall, Thursday.

Judge Marshall held the girl several days in jail on a charge of delinquency, in connection with an alleged auto trip with Clark Stethem, 25, former member of the police department. Tuesday he gave the girl a lecture, and placed her on probation as a ward of the court, requiring her to report to the court every two weeks. On her promise of good behavior she was turned over to the custody of her parents.

Stethem, is under $1,000 bond to appear in Judge Marshall's court Friday morning at nine o'clock to answer to a charge of abandonment made by his wife but it is possible the case may again be continued for a later trial date set at that time.

EMERSON WAS RIGHT

When he wrote: "If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse trap than his neighbor though he builds his house in the woods, the world will make beaten paths to his door"

This not only holds true in making mouse traps, but in the grocery business as well—at least we find it so. You'll likewise find it true after you've made a few visits to our stores.

OVERWHELMING VOTE CAST FOR STRIKE

Detroit, Mich., June 29.—Indications today are that the railroad maintenance of way employees and shop laborers have voted overwhelmingly in favor of a strike to be called Saturday. This admission was made in the brotherhood headquarters by E. Frank Grady, national president of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers today.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 29.—Officials of Pennsylvania system federation number 90, the largest organization of railroad shopmen in this country, announced today their workers will go out to a man in the strike called for Saturday.

Washington, June 29.—Congress will keep "hands off" in the nationwide mine strike until President Harding has been given an opportunity to bring about a peaceful settlement, it was declared today by leaders at the capitol.

Although a joint resolution calling for a congressional investigation of the mine dispute was before the house today, it was said the lower branch would take no action for the present.

SHOOTS BRIDE OF YEAR IN FIT OF JEALOUSY

Richmond, Va., June 29.—Prompted, it is said, by jealousy, Francis E. Perry, 28, early today shot and killed his bride of a year and then turned the gun on himself inflicting injuries from which he died a short time later in Memorial Hospital.

Perry died with a plea on his lips that he be permitted to see his dying bride.

McKay's Orchestra, of Wilmington, of which Deputy Recorder Forrest Hurley of this city is a member went to Richmond, Indiana, Thursday to make phonograph records for the Starr Piano Company.

The Starr Company makes the Gennet record, a popular phonograph record and local people will be interested in the new McKay records when they are released. AWAIT INVITATIONS

Cleveland, June 29.—Michael Gallagher, president of the Pittsburgh Vein Operators Association, and other operators operating the group of mines in eastern Ohio with the largest number of employees of any in the state, were still awaiting today invitations to attend the joint coal conference at the White House in Washington Saturday. CERTIFY ADDRESSES OF CANDIDATES ON PRIMARY BALLOTS

Columbus, Ohio, June 29.—Unless he is enjoined by a court, Harvey C. Smith, Secretary of State, will certify the addresses of candidates for state offices to the boards of elections in the 88 counties to be printed on the August primary election.

This decision was reached yesterday after careful consideration of the problem and after consultation with numerous attorneys with whom he took up the question.

The Secretary of State has power to compel obedience to the decrees. He takes the position that if any opposition to his course shows itself, he will not object to a test of the issue in the courts.

Since no one has found any reason to disagree with the proposal, he does not expect that any obstacle will be placed in the way.

From the legal side the conclusion reached by the attorneys who investigated the matter was that, while the law did not authorize specifically the use of addresses, it did not inhibit such action, and therefore he might exercise his discretion in the matter.

In filing declarations, addresses are required under the law. The point is made that the addresses will aid voters in the identification of candidates and prevent confusion.

This will be especially valuable in the cases of two Smiths standing for the Governorship and two Browns standing for the Secretaryship of State. The procedure is an innovation in political elections in Ohio.

While it is not mandatory in a sense for the same ruling to be followed in the cases of district and county nominations to be made at the same time as state nominations, it is possible that in both there will be action along the line proposed by Judge Smith.

In counties the Election Boards will determine the matter, and in districts the board of the county of the largest population will make the decision. The action taken without express warranty of statute, it is expected, will be followed by legislation. Judge Smith says he will recommend it if re-elected, and other candidates are known to have similar ideas. The abuse of identical names in the primary election ticket without means of identification has appeared in the primary election this year as it appeared in 1920 in numerous instances.

Analysis of the situation that will be caused by the printing of addresses on the ballot discloses that no benefits will accrue to any specified candidate. Judge Smith for example will be entered from Columbus and not from Zanesville, his original home. Colonel Carmi A. Thompson will go as from Euclid, a suburb of Cleveland. Former Auditor A. V. Donahy will be credited to Tuscarawas County, as he resides outside the corporate limits of any city or village. Charles L. Knight is credited to Akron and Homer Durand to Coshocton. Senator Albee Pomerene is credited to Canton and Congressman Simeon D. Fess to Yellow Springs.

Withdrawal of the candidacy of Judge Stanley McCall of Portsmouth for the Democratic nomination for attorney general has been announced.

HELP IS ASSURED TO LOCAL PEOPLE

The children and young people of the city, who have been handicapped in their life work and progress, because of some physical difficulty and financial condition are to be assured of assistance, as shown by the success of the Civilian Rehabilitation Service being carried on by Mrs. Carrie I. Robertson, executive secretary of the Social Service League and her co-workers.

During the few months that the League has carried on the work, two little girls have come to the attention of the orphans and are now being given training, to aid them in earning their living. One of the girls is being trained in millinery while the other will be given dressmaking training.

Many other cases are under the consideration of the League workers and if their cases prove advisable they will be referred to the state department for aid.

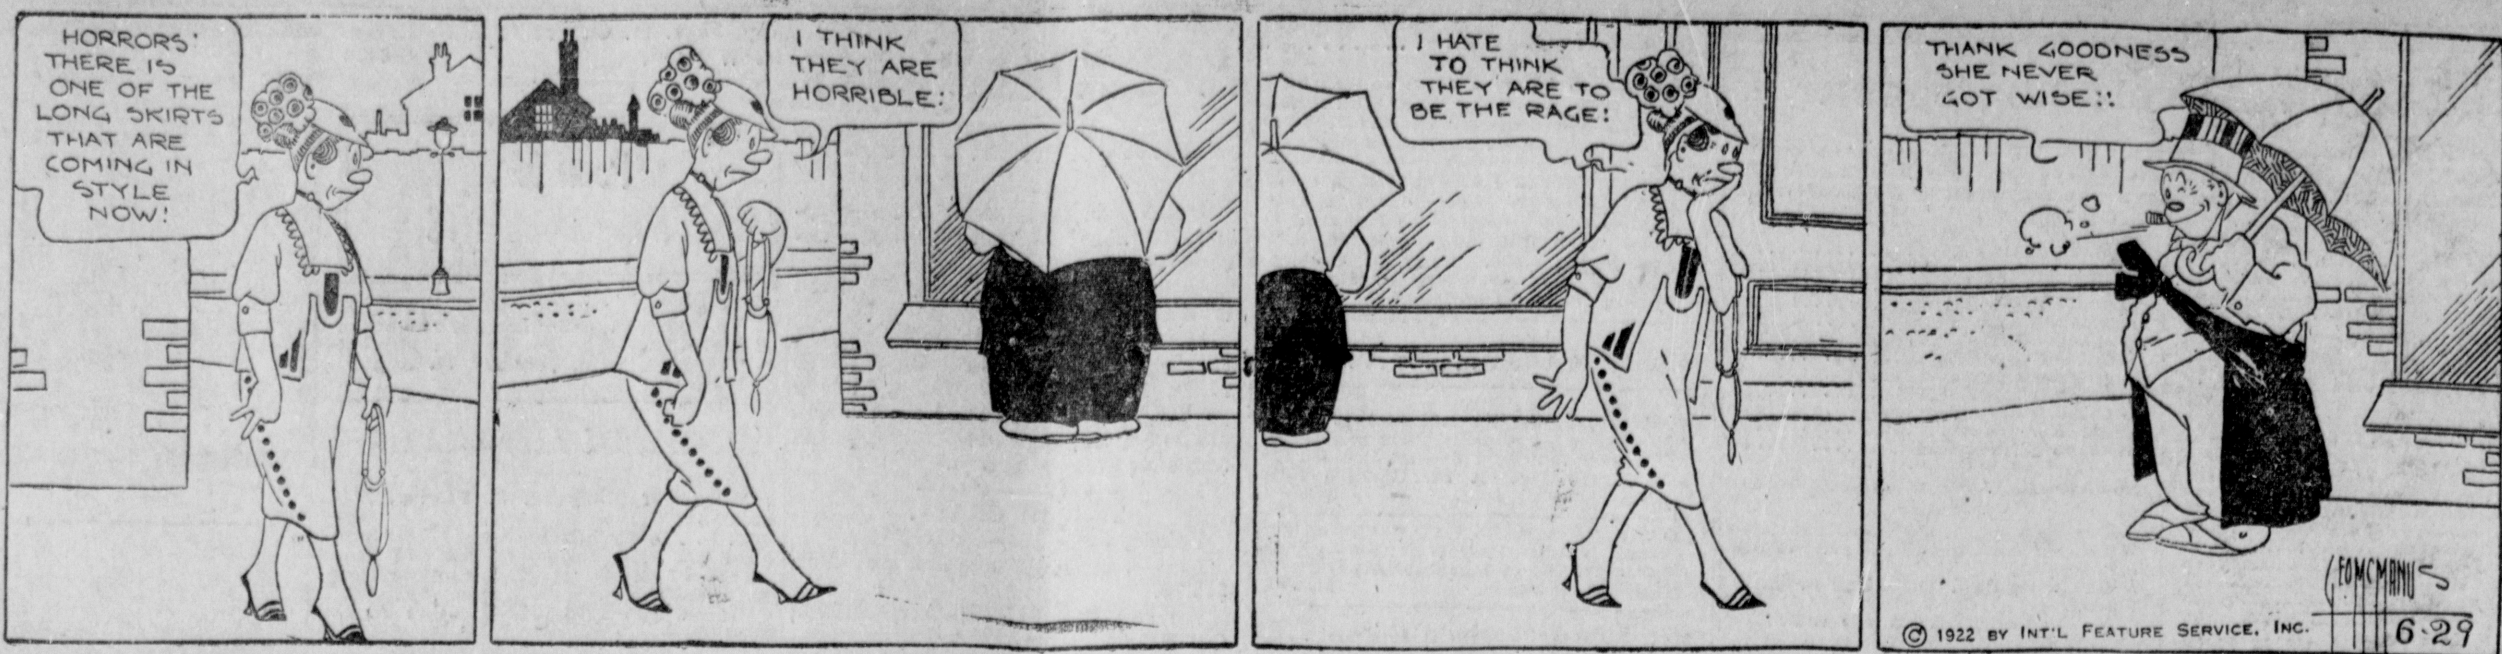

REFUSE TO ALLOW MAN TO LEAVE

Cincinnati, June 29.—Deputy sheriffs stood guard at the doors and refused to let attorney Louis B. Sawyer leave the court room Tuesday afternoon when he refused to proceed as counsel for Edward Oliver, proprietor of Woodlawn Inn, on the ground that he had been given insufficient time to prepare the case. Oliver was found guilty of operating a gambling room, after the jury had deliberated three minutes.

Hearing of the case which grew out of a raid ten days ago, was set at once by Judge Roetinger, after Chief Justice C. T. Marshall of the Ohio supreme court had set aside charges of bias and prejudice filed against Roetinger by Oliver and other defendants. Oliver took his cue from the attorney and would say nothing in his own defense. He said he would appeal.

TWO ARE HELD IN BLACKMAIL CASE

Cincinnati, June 29.—Frank E. Mohr, and Theodore Garrison of Hamilton, O., will be brought to Cincinnati this morning following their arrest yesterday in connection with an alleged blackmail letter demanding $12,000 of Mrs. F. H. Berk, wealthy Hamilton woman, who has been spending a short vacation in Hollywood, Calif. Three other arrests are expected in the case which is being handled by United States Deputy Marshals and postoffice inspectors working out of Cincinnati.

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS MOTION; TO HEAR APPEAL

Columbus, June 29.—The State Supreme Court has sustained the motion for leave, to file a petition in error to the action of the Lorain County Appellate Court in the case of C. C. Timberman versus the state. As a result of this decision, the court will hear the appeal of Timberman, former safety director of Lorain, whose conviction of accepting a bribe it is said, was based upon the sole testimony of an accomplice in the alleged crime.

Washington, June 28.—Passage of the McCumber tariff bill by the senate within a month or six weeks if the Republicans are ready to dispose of it that soon, appears to be the policy of the Democratic side today, following a series of informal conferences between Democratic lead-

Efficient Housekeeping

BED HYGIENE

If I were asked to judge whether or no a perfectly strange woman was a good housekeeper, I would ask first to see her beds. For, the good housekeeper prides herself on having clean, sweet, well-aired and well-made beds.

A bed that is never sunned and aired soon becomes musty and, in time, mouldy. The result is a damp bed which seriously affects the health of the sleeper. So often we hear people say, "I am not sleeping as well as I used to. I can't understand it."

The first answer to such a remark should be: "Is your bed being properly aired and sunned?"

Proper care of a bed begins with the very frame itself. If this is of painted or enameled wood, it may be cleaned by washing with lukewarm water to which a little ammonia has been added (not more than a few drops of ammonia to a pailful of water). This ammonia-water cuts the dirt and grease better than soapy water—yet does not yellow the paint and enamel, as soap does.

A waxed, varnished or otherwise highly polished wood bed-frame is cleaned by linseed oil and petroleum applied with a soft cloth, followed by hard rubbing with a dry cloth.

To clean a brass bed-frame, rub with a cheesecloth dipped into either lemon oil or linseed oil. The oil also keeps the shellac on the brass from becoming dry and cracking.

It need hardly be said that, no matter what the material of your bed-frame, it should be dusted daily!

The bed springs are the next consideration, after making sure that you are caring for the frame properly. They should be dusted often and kept clean and free from rust by being rubbed lightly with lemon oil. The oil need not be but on so thickly that it leaves grease spots on the mattress. If your bed has box springs, the oil method of cleansing cannot be carried on; in this case, brushing with a stiff-bristled whisk broom is the right treatment.

Mattresses should be cleaned, if possible, with a vacuum cleaner. But if the housewife does not own this electrical device, she should brush her mattresses often and, at least once in every three months, she should have them taken out of doors and beaten thoroughly with a rattan beater.

Box springs and mattresses should be sunned frequently. The mattress should be turned and aired daily (it is perhaps most easily aired by being pulled half way over the footboard of the bed). There is no need to dangle bedding out of the window; plenty of sun and air will be present in the bedroom if the windows are opened widely and the shades rolled to the top. Sheets and blankets are best sunned by being spread over two chair-backs close to the window.

I know of no housekeeping duty that pays better dividends, both in personal health and self-respect, than the faithful and thorough care of beds.

Tomorrow—Canning String, Wax, and Lima Beans.

TO COLLECT INHERITANCE TAX

A Stenographer's Romance

THE PROMISE OF BRIGHTER DAYS CHAPTER 5

After a good hot luncheon Nellie felt herself again and laughingly insisted upon helping clear away.

"Do you know, Cora—I may call you that, mayn't I, even if you are older, and smarter than I am?" At Cora's smiling permission she went on: "I am so discouraged that if I wouldn't rather be dead than there, I'd take the next train back to Hudson Corners. Guess I'd have to foot it though, and my feet are so lame now I can hardly stand on them." With a laugh she turned out the contents of her shabby purse—a subway ticket two nickels, a couple of hairpins and a piece of chewing gum. "The gum sort of stopped that gnawing feeling in my tummy," she explained.

"Perhaps I can help a little, although one poor girl can't do much to help another girl," Cora answered, her forehead puckered. She was desperately trying to think of some way to help Nellie.

"Honest Cora, I'd go back to hashing in Miss Carter's boarding house for the chance of getting a square meal, though they wasn't so awful square there lots of times. Not for me. This big town is something fierce when a girl's hungry. I guess if it hadn't been for coming to you today I'd been in the morgue by morning. I wonder would the papers have printed Nellie Riley starved to Death?" Do you suppose they would? take some dictation? Unless you are, lie.

"Don't, Nellie! Don't talk like that!"

"Honest I believe I was headed for there anyway my tummy was."

"Cheer up, Nellie! I shan't let you starve. Maybe you'll get a fine job one of these days and marry the boss," Cora said, trying to encourage the girl, yet feeling it almost hopeless to think of getting a position for her because of her lack of education.

"Nix on that marryin' stuff for me!" Nellie replied, a disgusted look on her pretty face—too pretty by far, Cora thought, to be running around New York looking for work.

"Why not marry? What have you got against marrying some nice man?" Cora, still asking, asked.

"Pa and ma are married. That's the answer," Nellie replied. It was known at the Corners that Nellie could not live at home after her mother married the second time.

"But where would you have been if your mother hadn't married?"

"I've thought about that, Cora," Nellie answered in a semi-serious way that sat strangely on her babyish face. "But perhaps there is a place somewhere for kids that never was born—kids what ain't wanted. There sure ain't no place on earth for kids like me, just being born to be cuffed and kicked around till they gets tired and ends it all. I ain't never been wanted by nobody."

"Suppose I let you stay with me a while. Would you be willing to help Mrs. Thompson, she's the landlady, until you learned to spell, and to Nellie, I am afraid you'll have to give up office work."

"I'll do anything you say Cora," Nellie replied, suddenly feeling very tired and weak. As long as she had no one to sympathize with her she had kept up her courage by sheer force of will, but with Cora's kindness her courage had evaporated until she felt she never could be alone again, never depend upon herself.

"Mrs. Thompson will want more if there are two in the room. But if you will help her with the rooms for three or four hours a day I think she will be willing to pay you enough so you can pay the extra, and have enough left to pay for your food. The rest of the time you can study. I have an old typewriter I keep here in the room, and in the evenings I'll start you on shorthand."

"Really, will you, Cora. Oh, I'll love you forever and ever if you will, and I'll help Miss Thompson, real good. I can if I'm a mind to if I do hate making beds and all that kind of work I had to do at Miss Carter's."

"We can't always choose in this world, Nellie. I'll speak to Mrs. Thompson at once, and if she is willing you can come right over, bring your things and get settled tonight."

"Hurrah! Three cheers for the only friend I've got in the world!" Nellie said so comically that Cora laughed, but she also saw the pretty eyes were filled with tears.

"Poor little thing," she murmured as she went in search of her landlady.
